

First Lady Tanika Baylor was born in Richmond, VA. She was born to the proud parents of James Williams III and Jessie Mae Williams. She is the third child of four children. Lady Tanika was raised in the church and at an early age, she knew that she was different from her friends. It was prophesied to her, at a young age, that she was special and there was a calling on her life. So, at the age of nine years old, she was baptized in Jesus' name and filled with the holy ghost. First Lady is no stranger to working in the church. She grew up singing in the youth choir and ushering. She also served in several ministries in the church as a Sunday school teacher, a member of the choir and children ministry. Lady Baylor worked with Higher Ground Development Center.

Having a passion to see women living at their fullest God-given potential, she became the Director of women's ministry called W.O.W. (Women Of Worth). As the director, First Lady's goal was not only to meet the needs for women of God spiritually and naturally by having events throughout the year. She also works along with her husband, Apostle Larry James Baylor, in ministering to God's people in teaching. She works with Apostle Baylor in Higher Ground International Ministries, where he is the presiding Bishop, teaching and ministering to pastors and minister wives from around the world.

First Lady has a genuine love for God, her family, and the work of the ministry. She loves to pray and have victorious testimony that prayer changes things". She is a loving, kind, caring, down- to- earth, God-fearing woman of God.

First Lady Tanika Baylor has been married to the love of her life, Apostle Larry Baylor, for 23 years. They have one amazing son, Cameron Joel Baylor, whom they love very much. Together they serve God with a passion and loves and leads God's people.
